

STEPHANIE URBINA JONES

and the

HONKY TONK MARIACHI

Walking After Midnight & Jolene | Stephanie Urbina Jones Grand Ole Opry

Urbina Jones makes history with her Grand Ole Opry Debut - as first artist to perform with Mariachi!

A fiery Texas Latina performer, Stephanie Urbina Jones, is breaking through County Americana music with a south-of-the-border authentic twist she calls Honky Tonk Mariachi.

Having performed in fourteen countries, Stephanie has appeared at the Festival County Rendez-vous (France), Country Gold (Japan), CMA Music Festival, the Americana Music Festival, Magic Town Gstaad Festival (Switzerland) and The Belladrum Tartan Heart Fest (Scotland) to name a few.

What the critics are saying:

Indie Voice Blog - "Stephanie Urbina Jones is a true visionary, for who else would have thought of marrying classic country with mariachi? Jones has done just that, and earned the right to perform at the Grand Ole Opry."

Rolling Stone Country - "'Rose Garden,' a stunning makeover, breathing new life into one of the most heavily covered songs in the country catalog."

Robert K. Oerrman/MusicRow Magazine - "'Jolene.' Genius. Marrying country songs to Latin rhythms and Mariachi horns is an idea that should have been hatched years ago. She makes this classic sound like a torrid Mexican telenovela."

Peter Cronin/Performing Songwriter - "Jones is an artist that freely combines the singer songwriter vibe with the hot blooded sounds of Mexico."

Hector Saldana - "Stephanie Urbina Jones hit the absolute sweet spot with her genuine and natural country twang with a mariachi twist."

Andoni Urkiaga, D'Country Magazine, Spain - "A Texan Music Ambassador of joy, love, respect, understanding and happiness all over the world. In these times of walls, Stephanie Urbina Jones is a bridge between cultures, languages and corazon."
